As Though You Didn't Know ...

Police officers are about the only ing irons and we can't remember how long it's been since we heard any of our friends warn one of his neighbors to vamoose out of town by sunset or else be prepared to "smell gun-smoke," but even in the face of such a prosaic state of affairs there are still plenty of persons living right here amongst us who almost nightly are witnesses to any number of such hair-raising episodes through the courtesy of Messers Zane Grey, Clarence Mul-

We went to Pland's Villa, that new oh-so-modern dining spot in San Lorenzo, last Saturday night San Lorenzo, last Saturday night.
It was all very confusing. I saw so many Niles people that at one time during the evening I had the uncanny feeling that we had never left Niles! The food is something you'd drive miles for (try the rount beef, and the yummy French pattries). The service, however, left much to be desired. Our waiter, or instance, remembered us only If buyers want to purchase this year's bumper apricot crop from township growers they will have to pay $110 top price. That was the decision reached by growers at a meeting held Monday evening at Washington Union High School.

the dessert course. But don't let me discourage you. The food and the ultra-ultra decor of the place more than compensate for the lack of service. Besides,who knows?—perhaps you'd have better luck with waiters than we did.

Remember the slogan that Niles used to have? WATCH NILES GROW. Now that we have a bak-GROW. Now that we have a bar-ery in Niles—which features a tempting array of cakes, pies, and cookies—I believe the slogan will eventually come to read WATCH NILES WOMEN GROW! You al-Triggs declared.

There are a few complaints from growers to the effect that the meeting and the demands resulting therefrom came a little too late to do any good, as they had already and the sounds! A gal has to have something good to eat once in a while."
